

Tips for Using the new AquaBrowser Online Catalog

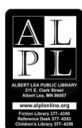

Discover Word Cloud:

1. The “word cloud” discovery assistant is designed to encourage broader exploration and discovery through the use of associations, word variations, spelling alternatives, translations, and synonyms.
2. Associations are automatically generated to create new paths that can broaden the scope of their search. Your search term is in the middle of the word cloud.

Can I get rid of the Discover Word Cloud?

Yes!!! It can be hidden simply by clicking on “Hide.” This option gives you more room on your screen for your search results.

The screenshot shows the SELCO (Southeastern Libraries Cooperating) online catalog interface. At the top, there is a search bar with the text 'Dogs' and a 'Search' button. To the right of the search bar are links for 'Advanced', 'Help', 'Print', and 'My Discoveries'. A red circle highlights a 'Hide' button in the top navigation bar. On the left side, there is a word cloud centered around the word 'Dogs'. The word cloud includes terms like 'hound', 'perro', 'dods', 'rescue', 'dog', 'cat', 'storey', 'sled', 'bird', 'day', 'work', 'racing', 'book', 'love', 'prairie', 'alaska', 'london', 'animal', 'care', 'psychology', 'training', 'breed', 'canine', 'digs', and 'dogz'. A legend at the bottom left explains the colors: black for Association, green for Translation, blue for Discovery trail, red for Spelling variation, and grey for Thesaurus term. The main content area displays search results for 'Dogs', showing 'Local results: 2,540' and 'Displaying 1 - 10 of 2,540 for Dogs, sorted by: relevance'. Three book results are visible, each with a book icon, title, author, publisher, subject, and description. The first result is 'Dogs: the ultimate dictionary of over 1,000 dog breeds' by Desmond Morris and Philip Hood. The second is 'Dogs' by Seymour Simon. The third is 'Dogs' by Bruce Fogle. Each result includes a 'Place Request' button. On the right side, there is a 'Select SELCO Library' dropdown menu set to 'Albert Lea', and a 'Refine' section with filters for Format, Author, Series, Subject, and User Tags.
